Script

- » This year we have been developing character traits to bring out the HERO in you!
- » Your teacher has a HERO Award (certificate) for each of you as a way to celebrate the HERO that you are! You will receive your HERO Award (certificate) in your classroom.

Recognition of HERO Builders

We want to recognize a few (school mascot) HEROES. Some are fellow students, teachers and faculty members.

Examples are:

- » A student who is consistent in character traits – it's who they are
- » A student who has shown improvements despite their challenging circumstances.
- » A staff member who does UNSUNG HERO stuff – Custodian, Nurse, Secretary, etc.
- » A teacher who is a seasoned member of the team.
- » A teacher who is a NEW member of the team.

HERO Speaker: Guest speaker is one of the school's own students. A teacher can help the student develop their speech. The goal is to put together a 5-7 minute motivational speech.

Ideas for speech:

1. The most important characteristic of a HERO to me is...
2. A HERO story or quote that is special to you.
3. You get to write the greatest HERO story of all time – YOURS. What will your story look like? How you will be remembered depends on how you live your HERO story.

Examples for speaker selection:

1. Elementary School – 5th grade student
2. Middle School – 8th grade student
3. High School – 12th grade student (other than valedictorian)

Summarize the past year of “The HERO Builder” character traits (can use video highlights, etc.)

Challenge students to keep building the HERO within and be somebody's hero through the summer months. HEROES DON'T GO ON VACATION! Encourage those entering a new chapter or new grade to take with them the characteristics of a HERO and continue building on them.

Close of Assembly:

Teachers, HERO speaker, school mascot are giving HERO High-Fives to students and encouraging them to “Be Somebody's HERO”...

Music: Front and back of assembly. Consider playing The HERO Builder theme song which can be found at www.TheHeroBuilder.com

Mascot – Has a presence during the assemblies start and/or finish.
